

About Dr. Rosen:

Dr. Rosen has practiced orthopedic surgery in Phoenix and Glendale, Arizona since 1981. During this time he has become well known both on a local level and nationally with his involvement in professional organizations and, as an advocate for healthcare quality and accountability. For three decades he has been involved in quality assurance, peer review activities. During this time has served as independent medical examiner, and provided expert testimony for both defendant and plaintiff always with the guiding principle that evidenced based medicine in peer reviewed publications coupled with ethical practice are the foundations of justice in the medical-legal arena. Only in keeping with these strict guidelines can his opinions be counted upon to be irrefutable in any venue for which they are requested.

Marc Rosen graduated from the Ohio State University in 1972 majoring in English and pre-medical studies. He attended the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine receiving the degree Doctor of Medicine in 1976. Internship and residency in orthopedic surgery were completed at the University of Cincinnati Hospitals with a brief externship at New England Baptist Hospital in Boston, Massachusetts. He is licensed currently in the states of Arizona and Ohio. Dr. Rosen is certified by the American Board of Orthopedic Surgery and, a fellow in the American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons.

Dr. Rosen holds many leadership positions in his specialty. From 2007-2013 he has been elected to the Board of Councilors of the American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons. He serves on the board of the Western Orthopedic Association. He has been elected a fellow of the American Orthopedic Association and the American Association of Hip and Knee Surgeons. Each year as part of the National Orthopedic Leadership Conference he has lobbied in the halls of congress for patient access to quality specialty care.

On the local level he has devoted himself to the highest standards of professionalism as the president of the Maricopa County Medical Society and the Arizona Orthopedic Society. He has been both hospital chief of staff and chief of surgery, for many years serving on hospital quality assurance, credentials and, executive committees. In the community his activism is highly visible as a board member of the Greater Southwest Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation.

For many years he served as vice president of the Orthopedic Surgeons Network of Arizona. This organization has now become the largest single specialty orthopedic group in Arizona and he continues to play an active role in the successor organization. Dr. Rosen is president and senior partner in Phoenix Orthopedic Consultants. He has provided regional peer review and quality assurance committee work for the insurance industry. He serves as a consultant to the orthopedic industry and has participated in product design and evaluation. Academic interests are in the area of adult reconstructive surgery, hip and knee replacement surgery, orthopedic nursing and rehabilitation, prevention of venous thrombosis (DVT), and blood loss in orthopedic procedures.